New England's Monthly Numismatic Catalog

Happy Holidays from New England

From all of us at New England Rare Coin Galleries to all readers of Inventory Selections, our best wishes for a joyous holiday season. New England is proud that, through your support, we have grown to become the world's largest rare coin dealer, offering collectors more coins more often than any other numismatic firm. Thank you for being with us, and we hope you'll continue to grow with New England throughout the coming new year.

Thanks, too, to all who participated in the David K. Carnegie Sale, held November 13-15 in Boston, Massachusetts, by New England Rare Coin Auctions. Prices realized from this sale totaled over $2,690.00. For some exciting sale highlights, see the special report inside. New England's first auction of 1981, the annual Florida United Numismatists' Association (F.U.N.) Auction, is scheduled for January 7-10 in Orlando, Florida. Auction information, and a copy of the beautiful 1981 F.U.N. Auction Catalog, is available for $5 from New England Rare Coin Auctions, P.O. Box 1776, Boston, MA 02105.

If you're looking for a last-minute "stocking stuffer," why not give a subscription to New England's ancient and world coin catalog, New England World Selections? It won't cost a cent, and it's a unique way to say "happy holidays." Simply call New England and give us the name and address of a fellow collector. We'll be happy to send him a free New England World Selections trial subscription.

December Special Value

1926 and 1932 Indian Head Eagles

Indian Head Eagles were designed by Augustus St. Gaudens, a great modern sculptor who brought a new standard of art to U.S. coins. The obverse shows Liberty crowned with an Indian war bonnet, while the reverse is dominated by a majestic eagle. Instead of a lettered or reeded edge, the coins have raised stars signifying the number of states in the Union. New England is offering a special savings on 1926 and 1932 Indian Head Eagles in the following grades:

	Regularly	Special
MS-63.....	970.00	895.00
MS-64.....	$1,350.00	$1,225.00
MS-65.....	$2,250.00	$2,100.00

Reserve your Indian Head Eagle by calling your New England numismatist today toll-free: 800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800). Our special value price will be in effect until January 8.

INVENTORY SELECTIONS is published each month by New England Rare Coin Galleries, 89 Devonshire Street, Boston, MA 02109. Single copy price: $1. Yearly subscription price: $10. All coins are subject to prior sale. All prices are subject to change without notice.

A special series profiling
New England Rare Coin Galleries' numismatic experts.

Nelson Powers

Years ago, New England numismatist Nelson Powers began collecting rare coins as a hobby. "My friends were avid collectors and I was swept up in their enthusiasm. In those days, the Morgan Dollars I bought were only worth the silver they were made from. Now, they're worth several times that."

Nelson still adds to his Morgan Dollar series. "But now I view my coins as a financial asset. In a sense, I've made a transition from rare coin collector to rare coin investor."

Nelson brings this philosophy to his position as a New England numismatist. "I realize that rare coins are more than beautiful collectibles. My clients also want good financial return on their coinage, so I put together portfolios that will have high appreciation rates. Since these decisions take extensive research and market analysis, I keep a close eye on numismatic buying trends by utilizing New England's vast network of resources."

Nelson joined New England in July, after attending New York University and working several years as a sales representative in the construction industry. The business expertise he developed during that period enables him to give sound, financial advice on rare coins. Right now, for example, he urges his clients to buy commemoratives. "They've been undervalued for the past two years. Until commemoratives catch up to the rest of the market, you can get a quality, high-grade coin for less than $700."

A resident of Somerville, Massachusetts, Nelson has travelled extensively throughout the United States, Europe and South America. In his free time, he enjoys sailing, skiing and fishing, but during the work week, he takes pride in stimulating interest in quality coinage. "Because the market fluctuates daily, it's a challenge to accurately predict numismatic trends. I get gratification out of making good financial decisions and seeing my clients get high returns on their coin investments."

Yesterday's headlines...

In 1976, 407,283 silver dollars were purchased for $7.3 million from the estate of millionaire LaVere Redfield. This was the world's largest private numismatic transaction — later recorded in the Guinness Book of World Records and in countless national news stories. Today, New England Rare Coin Galleries offers a special selection of Morgan Dollars from this historic hoard — each hand selected by our own numismatists.

Highlights from

The David K. Carnegie Sale

On November 13-15, New England Rare Coin Auctions, the auction division of New England Rare Coin Galleries, held its annual fall sale in Boston, Massachusetts. Featured in the sale were specimens from the David K. Carnegie Collection of rare U.S. coinage, and a particularly choice selection of U.S. fractional currency. Inside are a few highlights from this important rare coin auction. Next month, New England will be holding its first auction of 1981 in Orlando, Florida; The 1981 Florida United Numismatists (F.U.N.) Auction.

Market Report

by Tim LaPointe

At the shows

Trading activity was brisk at several coin shows last month, including the Las Vegas Coin Show (held November 22-3 in Las Vegas, Nevada) and the Numismatics International Coin Exposition (held November 14-16 in Dallas, Texas). Dealer and collector/investor attendance was particularly high at both the Bay State Coin Convention (held November 6-9 in Boston, Massachusetts) and the Grand Central Coin Convention (held November 6-9 in New York City). At the New England Fall Auction (held November 13-15 in Boston, Massachusetts), the David K. Carnegie Collection drew extremely competitive bids. Prices realized in many categories were much higher than anticipated, reflecting an overall increase in the demand for quality specimens. Total prices realized for the 1966 lots in the sale reached over $2,690,000.00. Popular items at all the shows included Commemorative Half Dollars in Choice Gem condition, Lincoln Cents and Silver Dollars in Choice condition.

Gold

Since our last report, gold has dipped $53 an ounce, now standing at the $594 level. Though bullion coins (i.e. Maple Leafs and Kruggerands) have experienced a similar decrease in value, the market for U.S. common-date UNC gold coinage is on the upswing. In particular, common-date Uncirculated St. Gaudens Double Eagles are trading hands in the $800-$875 range, and Uncirculated $10 Eagles are realizing prices as high as $850. Both collector/investors and dealers are paying premium prices for common-date and numismatic rarities.

Silver

Silver bullion is trading at $16.35, down $3.25 since the November report. This slight reduction has had virtually no effect on numismatic silver coinage. In fact, Mercury Dimes with full split bands, Walking Liberty Half Dollars and Silver Dollars in Gem condition are bringing substantially higher prices than four or five months ago. Late-date Washington Quarter rolls in Gem BU condition are also rising in popularity. Many dealers feel these coins are reasonably priced and will continue to show significant gains in the near future.

Though the Coin Dealer Newsletter indicates little change in the prices of Commemorative Half Dollars, these coins are being quoted at increasingly higher price levels. In general, silver coins in true Gem condition — including Early Dimes and Quarters — are being actively sought by many dealers. However, dealers are adhering to strict grading guidelines since these coins must be absolutely Gem to realize higher prices.

Nickel

Buffalo Nickel Rolls, particularly the better, hard-to-find specimens, are passing hands at significantly higher prices than a few months ago. At the New England Fall Auction, for example, a 1934-D roll realized $7,000 and a 1934-P roll realized $4,500. Dealers and collectors are quoting as high as $35,000 for some 1934-38 Buffalo Roll sets. Full-steps Jefferson Nickels, particularly during the war dates, are also being sought after by dealers.

Copper

Both Lincoln Cents and Indian Head Cents in nice condition are attracting interest in the numismatic copper market. Also, rarities in any condition are bringing prices far higher than four or five years ago. For example, a circulated 1877 Indian Penny recently brought $1,250.

Currency

The U.S. currency market is active, particularly in the area of uncut currency sheets. This recent trend can be attributed to reports that the Bureau of Engraving and Printing may resume sales of uncut sheets, a move supported by both dealers and collectors. (Uncut sheets have not been sold to the public for 27 years.)

Fractional and Small Size Currency is still being sought in numismatic circles. For less than $12,000 a collector/investor can put together a complete Choice Type set of 24 pieces. At the New England Fall Auction, a grey Fractional Currency shield — originally appraised before the auction at $1,500 to $2,750 — was sold for $3,600, possibly the highest price ever for a U.S. shield.

World Coins

Signs of the growing interest in world coinage among collectors continued to spring up everywhere throughout the past months. Auction activity in London has been high, and at the long-awaited COINEX-80 Show (held September 26-27 at the Europa Hotel in London), many price records were established.

One of the main contributors to the recent growth in the world coin market seems to be the publication of many new books on the subject. Probably chief among these is the Standard Catalog of World Coins released by Krause Publications. This one-volume library with its thousands of prices and mintage figures has removed much of the mystery from collecting world coins, and has opened the doors for many new collectors.

Another important new publication in the offing is a world coin version of Coin Dealer Newsletter (or, as it is more commonly called, "The Gray Sheet"). Reportedly, the sole aim of this new publication will be to recap and summarize important trends in the world coin market. We look forward eagerly to such a publication, as it will simplify, for collectors and dealers alike, the act of making informed buying and selling decisions on world coinage.

At a recent coin convention I met someone who specialized in collecting brockage errors. Could you explain what this means? — L.S., Ann Arbor, MI

Brockage errors, found in both U.S. and foreign coins, are interesting to collect. They are caused when one coin is imprinted by another while in the press. For example, visualize a struck coin sticking to the bottom die with its obverse facing up. When the next blank is pressed, the obverse of the first coin will be indented on the back of the top coin. The result is a reversed, mirror-like impression of the obverse image. The opposite would be true if the blank sticks to the upper die. (It is rare to find a genuine brockage with both an obverse and reverse; they usually have either two obverses or two reverses.)

When a brockage occurs, the struck coin causing the reversed image is called a "capped die." After striking several blanks, this capped die will begin to spread out, distorting the image until it is barely recognizable. (Technically speaking, a brockage is the first stage of a capped die.) The most common coins struck from a capped die are Lincoln Cents. They have two reverses: one with the correct image and the other with a reversed, spread out image of the memorial.

Why are the words "Indented bill" written on many New York and Pennsylvania Issues of early U.S. Paper Money? Do they refer to the engraving process? — K.G., Cleveland, OH

No, the phrase refers to "indenture," which was a method of detecting counterfeit bills in early Colonial days. The U.S. Treasury bound series of paper money into pads or books, then gave each bill an identification number. The bills were cut off the stubs unevenly with a knife or scissors so they could be fitted and verified on redemption. This procedure soon became impractical because of the time-consuming process of numbering and cutting each bill. The currency also became tattered on the indented end making it difficult to match with stubs. The expression "indented bill" was used in paper currency long after this practice was abandoned. Pictured here is a 1774 Maryland $2 bill with a portion of the stub remaining.

At my first coin show, I heard the 1917 Standing Liberty Quarter was considered Indecent by the American public. What are the details of this story? — J.V., St. Louis, MO

The beautifully designed Type I Standing Liberty Quarter struck in 1916 and early 1917 has been labeled as America's only "obscene" coin. The obverse shows Liberty with her left arm raised, bearing a shield for protection. Her right hand carries the olive branch of peace. She is stepping forward to the gateway of the country and on the wall behind her are the words "In God We Trust."

Once the coin was circulated publically, a rash of complaints flooded the federal government asking that the design be modified. Americans were in an uproar because Liberty's flowing gown exposed one breast and her right leg above the knee. Initially, the government ignored this furor, partly because so many U.S. Mint officials had approved the new coin. But in April, 1917, Congress began debating the need to change the quarter. (The only official reason given was that bankers had problems stacking the coin because of the raised eagle on the reverse.) Three months later, Congress agreed to change the position of the eagle, rearrange the stars and lettering on the coin, and give a slight concavity to its surface. One other revision, never officially acknowledged, was that Liberty's gown gave her more covering.

In the November Issue of Inventory Selections, I noticed the $1 Gold Panama-Pacific Commemorative offered for sale. I was surprised to see that the coin was circular. Wasn't this piece one of the few octagonal coins struck by the U.S. Mint? — N.R., Cherry Hill, NJ

You must be referring to the $50 Gold Panama-Pacific Commemorative, which was part of a set of five coins minted for the Panama-Pacific Exposition held in 1915 in San Francisco. The exposition celebrated the opening of the Panama Canal, which shortened the journey to the West Coast by more than 6,000 miles. Merchant vessels and war ships no longer had to go around Cape Horn to reach California and other western states. The commemorative set included the $50 octagonal, $50 round, $2.50 and $1.00 gold pieces, and a silver Half Dollar.

The $50 Gold piece was struck in both octagonal and round shapes because similar $50 gold coins were used in California following the 1849 gold rush. When California joined the Union in 1850, an octagonal $50 gold piece was the only privately minted gold coin that the federal government authorized for circulation. Other privately minted gold coins were not backed by the government because their weight and size differed from those of officially minted coins. It is interesting to note that the $50 Panama-Pacific Commemorative was the only non-round coin struck for the public by the U.S. Mint.

The obverse of both the round and octagonal versions of the $50 commemorative show Minerva, the goddess of wisdom, inventions, arts and sciences. The reverse has an owl, which also symbolizes wisdom. The octagonal version also has dolphins imprinted on the angles of the coin, suggesting the uninterrupted water route made possible by the Panama Canal.

A 1915-S Panama-Pacific $50 (Round) Commemorative will be auctioned at New England's F.U.N. Show, slated January 7-10 in Orlando, Florida. Several other Panama-Pacific commemoratives will also be for sale.

English Maundy Coins: A Numismatic Tradition of Giving

—by Ann Marie Reis—

The holiday season means sharing with friends, reuniting with family and reviving long-standing cultural traditions. An aura of warmth and kindness surround us all during this time of festivity. Numismatics, too, has its own traditions that reflect good will and a spirit of giving. One example is the ancient custom of distributing Maundy Money to British peasants. Though this practice has been modified over the years, it is an accepted tradition in modern-day England.

Once a year, the reigning English monarch or his/her representative hands out sets of silver Maundy coins to a selected group of men and women. In past years, the coins and gifts of clothing and food were distributed to poor peasants. Today, elderly British citizens receive the coins and other forms of money. This tradition occurs on Maundy Thursday (the day before Good Friday) usually at the Westminster Abbey in London.

Historians believe that the distribution of Maundy Money originated in the early days of Christianity, when Christ washed his disciples' feet and gave a commandment for them to wash the feet of others. During the Middle Ages, many British monarchs performed this ceremony in addition to handing out gifts to the poor. Written records indicate that as early as the reign of King John (1199-1216), Maundy coins were given to the peasants.

Each year, the number of men and women receiving Maundy money corresponds to the age of the ruling sovereign. For instance, when King George was 50 years old, 50 men and 50 women each received five sets of Maundy coins, equalling 50 pence. The next year, 51 men and 51 women each received five sets with an additional penny, equalling 51 pence.

Until the late 1600's, pennies were the only coins struck for the Maundy celebration. Since that time, however, Maundy sets have consisted of a penny, twopence, threepence and fourpence.

English Maundy sets have become popular collector/investor items. Within the past year, the average prices for these silver coins have almost doubled. This surge in popularity is due in part to the fact that collector/investors are encouraged to diversify their portfolios. Many are turning to English coinage, since the history of Great Britain is so closely tied with the heritage of the United States. The limited supply of Maundy sets also contributes to their increased value on the numismatic market. Prior to the reign of King Edward VII (1901-10), the Royal Mint struck more sets than needed for the Maundy ceremony so collectors could purchase the coins. King Edward, however, restricted the amount minted to cover the coins given to recipients at the ceremony and for certain British officials. This general trend has been followed over the years.

World Coins

Collecting ancient and world coins is one of man's oldest hobbies. The Emperor Nero collected coins from Greece. Fourteenth century Italian nobles collected Roman coins. English gentlemen of old considered the study of ancient coins a crucial part of a proper education. Today, ancient and world coin collecting is the fastest-growing area in numismatics.

Inventory Selections is proud to present the following offerings of ancient and world coins taken from the latest issue of New England's bi-monthly world coin catalog, New England World Selections. When ordering, please refer to the "W-numbers" that appear before each coin listing. If you'd like a free trial subscription to New England World Selections, which offers New England's entire ancient and world coin inventory, call or write to New England Rare Coin Galleries.

An Invitation to Greater Knowledge

Numismatics is a world unto itself — vast in scope, rich in history, fascinating in detail. To explore this world is to be captivated by it — and to explore it fully is to become a member of the American Numismatic Association.

The American Numismatic Association (the A.N.A.) is the world's largest and most active numismatic organization. And when you join, you'll receive:

Use of the A.N.A. Library The largest numismatic library in the world from which you can borrow all kinds of numismatic reference works.

The Numismatist A scholarly monthly magazine sent free to all regular, club, junior and life A.N.A. members. Through The Numismatist you'll expand your collecting horizons and become knowledgeable in a wealth of numismatic subjects.

ANACS Service The A.N.A.'s grading and authentication service for all your coins at a special membership rate.

Insurances Offered through the A.N.A. for your collection, your health, and your life.

Plus you'll receive a free Dictionary of Numismatic Terms, an Introduction to Numismatics, and an invitation to participate in the A.N.A.'s annual conventions and auctions.

U.S. Currency

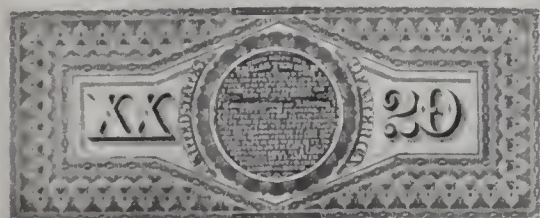

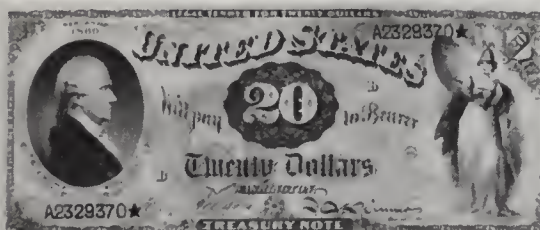

As the market for numismatic collectibles grows larger, more and more collectors are broadening their portfolios by including high-quality U.S. currency. No other type of monetary collectible offers greater diversity, beauty and historical interest — and no other collectible augments a quality collection of rare U.S. coinage so naturally. New England is proud to offer the following pieces of rare U.S. currency to Inventory Selections readers, any of which can be ordered simply by using the enclosed order form, or by calling our toll-free number.

FR #1504 $2, 1928-C SHEET, GEM NEW SHEET. Uncut sheets were sold at face value to collectors and have always been one of the most prized additions to any collection of modern U.S. currency. This superb 12 subject sheet has never been folded. It displays some normal handling at corner tips, but overall is as printed. While all uncut sheets are scarce, this is the rarest of the $2 Legal Tender Sheets, with only 25 sheets released by the B.E.P. Of those 25 sheets, only 12 are accounted for. This example's serial numbers (B8-69A through B8-80A) does not fall within the range of sheets listed in O'Donnell's "Standard Handbook of Modern U.S. Paper Money." Probably this was a special presentation sheet pulled off the press and given to a visiting V.I.P. A rare opportunity to own a rare and undervalued sheet 5,950.00

Our Complete Numismatic Services

1. Guarantees

☐ Grading

We guarantee that coins purchased from us are graded correctly and will meet our high standards when you wish to sell them. Further, we guarantee to purchase these coins at the same grade at which they were sold, or sell them for you at auction cataloged at the same grade at which you purchased them.

Our grading system is patterned after that of the American Numismatic Association. Developed in 1978, the A.N.A. System is rapidly being adopted by virtually the entire professional numismatic community. Its designations are:

Poor.....	1
Fair.....	2
About Good.....	3
Good.....	4,5
Very Good.....	8,10
Fine.....	12,15
Very Fine.....	20,25,30,35
Extremely Fine.....	40,45
About Uncirculated.....	50,55,58
Mint State.....	60,63,64,65,66,67,69,70
Proof.....	60,63,65,67,69,70

Slash grades indicate obverse/reverse designations. For example, a grade of 65/63 describes a coin with an obverse of Mint State 65 and a reverse of Mint State 63.

☐ Authenticity

We further guarantee that all coins sold by New England Rare Coin Galleries are authentic. To protect our customers, and as proof of our certainty that no altered or counterfeit coin can escape our attention, we guarantee to refund the full purchase price plus 15% compound annual interest, on any non-authentic coin acquired from us.

☐ Documentation

These guarantees are issued in writing with all coins purchased from New England Rare Coin Galleries. Each written guarantee is personally endorsed by two professional numismatists.

☐ Satisfaction

If, for any reason, you are not satisfied with your purchases, you may return them within 45 days of the date you received them for a full refund or replacement.

2. Expert Counseling

Use New England's toll-free number to consult with some of the most knowledgeable numismatists in America. Our expert staff is often sought by government agencies, museums and other coin dealers for advice on authenticity and value. We supply free information on placing coins in retirement plans, building rare coin portfolios and liquidating collections.

3. Selection

Our multi-million dollar inventory of U.S. rare coins is the largest in the world. New England buyers examine several million dollars' worth of coins each week to bring our customers the very best values.

4. Want Lists

Send your Want List to your New England account executive. He'll use our computerized facilities to help you locate any coin you desire. There is no charge for this service, and you are under no obligation to buy. You will, however, have the first opportunity to purchase each coin on your list that we locate.

5. Personal Service Cards

Call your New England Professional Numismatist and apply for a New England Personal Service Card. It costs you nothing. And it entitles you to:

- ☐ Approval Account Service, whereby you can personally examine coins before you purchase them ($100 minimum order, payment in full due in 30 days).
- ☐ Deferred Payment Service, which makes financing your rare coin purchases easy: 25% down, 25% each 30 days for a maximum of 90 days, and no interest charges! $500 is the minimum order allowed under this plan, $5,000 is the maximum.

6. Auctions

If you have high-quality coins to sell, contact New England Rare Coin Auctions first. Selling at auction is often the best way to receive top dollar for your coins. And New England has conducted some of the numismatic world's finest auctions, including the prestigious Metropolitan New York Auction and the annual auction of the American Numismatic Association. Our toll-free "Auction Line" number is: 800-225-6794, Extension #99.

7. Purchasing

If you prefer to sell your coins directly, send them insured and by registered mail to New England. We will reimburse you for postage costs. Or call our Purchasing Manager, Barbara M. Kennedy, for more information. You will find our buying prices among the highest in the industry.

8. Brochures

New England has several informational brochures which we'll be happy to send to you free upon request. They include:

- ☐ Rare Coins: The Valuable Asset
- ☐ Questions & Answers on Consigning to Auction
- ☐ Coins & Keoghs
- ☐ When You're Ready to Sell Your Rare Coins

9. Toll-free Wats Line

Contacting New England is free. Use our toll-free WATS line: 1-800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts, please call: 617-227-8800). We'll be happy to assist you in any way we can.
